DATED 14TH JUNE 1912.

The Scottish Insurance Commissioners (hereinafter referred to as "The Commissioners"), in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the National Insurance Act, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Meeting Places of Approved Societies) Regulations (Scotland), 1912.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. (1) No Meeting of any approved society or branch thereof or any committee of such society or branch shall be held in—

(a) any premises on which the sale by wholesale or retail of any intoxicating liquor is authorised by licence (whether the licence be for consumption on or off the premises); or

(b) any premises where any intoxicating liquor is sold or is supplied to members of a club, society, or association, or on any part of any such premises :

(2) Nothing in this Regulation shall apply to any part of such premises which is ordinarily let for the purpose of chambers or offices or the holding of public meetings or of arbitrations provided that such part has a separate entrance and no direct communication with any part of the premises on which any intoxicating liquor is sold or supplied as aforesaid, that no other suitable premises are available, and that the sanction of the Commissioners is obtained to the use of such premises by the approved society, branch, or committee concerned.

4. Any offices or other building under the control of a Government Department (including offices or buildings occupied by or in connection with a Labour Exchange) or belonging to or under the management of a local authority may be used, subject to the consent of the Government Department or of the local authority concerned, with or without payment, as a place in which a meeting or meetings of any approved society or branch thereof or any committee of such society or branch may be held.

5. These Regulations shall come into effect as from the date hereof, provided that the Commissioners may permit any approved society or branch thereof or any committee of such society or branch to meet in any premises as defined in Regulation No. 3 hereof during their tenancy thereof under an existing Lease.
